REFRAIN

Pae-ka-ka-ri-ki in the land of the Ti-ki, Where you spend all your days at the beach; You hear the song from the Tu-i when the morn-ings are dew-y, And there's hap-pi-ness with-in your reach. It's {South of the Ther-mal Re-gion, — On-ly near to six hun-dred miles from the Bluff. You fly there by Car-ri-er Pi-geon, Those birds in New Zea-land are tough. Now you might want to stay where you can see Ti-ta-hi Bay, But take my bit of friend-ly ad-vice- Push on to Pae-ka-ka-ri-ki in the land of the Ti-ki, It's an-oth-er name for Pa-ra-dise. Come up to -dise.

1st. VERSE

You may need some place to go, When you're feel-ing like a rest,

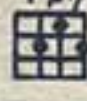

I've seen pla-ces high and low, But I like this place the best. Come up to

2nd. VERSE

There's a lit-tle place in old New Zea-land, Where the par-rots lived at first;

Now the hu-man race in the na-tive tree land goes there to quench its thirst. For en-joy-ment come to
